

CALL FOR PAPERS

THE EU AS A GLOBAL ACTOR

CEE-SCIENCES PO – IRSEM JOINT DOCTORAL STUDENT WORKSHOP AND DOCTORAL PRIZE

Paris, Thursday 3 and Friday 4 June 2010

The Centre d'études européennes at Sciences Po and the IRSEM have decided to run a joint doctoral seminar. The workshop is open to all PhD students registered in a European university since at least one year. It aims at enabling young researchers to exchange ideas and discuss their research with their peers and senior academic colleagues.

The theme of the workshop is “The EU as a Global Actor”. Preference will be given to proposals dealing with original, specific and understudied subjects (ie: the role of the EU after the financial crisis, the perception of the EU by non European actors, the European debate on Afghanistan, the assessment of EU policy on climate change after Copenhagen etc...). Non-French students are strongly urged to candidate.

At the end of the workshop, a 1,000 euros prize will be given to the best paper, based on the quality of the text submitted and of the answers to the questions and comments addressed during the discussion. The prize will be awarded following a vote of the participants to the workshop. The winning paper will be jointly published by the CEE and IRSEM (Cahiers Européens de Sciences Po, Cahiers de l'IRSEM).

Organization:

The convenors of the workshop are Zaki Laïdi (CEE-Sciences Po) and Frédéric Charillon (IRSEM).

The working language of the workshop will be English.
