

1st CLEER Summer school on EU external relations law

24 – 28 June 2013 , Maastricht University, Brussels Campus

This unique and intensive one-week Summer school aims to provide a thorough analysis of issues pertaining to the Law of EU External relations. Through a combination of interactive lectures by renowned academic experts, workshops led by key practitioners and study visits to the EU institutions, participants gain an extensive knowledge and a deep understanding in this dynamic area of EU law and recent developments.

The programme includes legal and policy issues in the area of External trade, Energy, AFSJ, CFSP/CSDP, Environment, ENP and Development policies, discussion about mixed competences and the EU's global role.

Admission requirements: Students, civil servants or practitioners with academic background or practical experience in law, political science or international relations.

Language: All lectures are held in English.

Tuition fee: 450 EUR, 250 EUR for students (which covers lunch and reading material).

Scholarships: Four scholarships are available for students to finance participation.

Certificate: All participants will receive a certificate of attendance.

Applications deadline: 15 May. Applicants are encouraged to send their statement of interest and CV by 1 May, to secure acceptance.

For more information and programme see www.cleer.eu