

URBAN TALKS

Reflection on the European Parliament elections results

Wednesday 29th of May 2019, 18:00 – 21:00
Industra, Masná 9, Brno

Speakers:

- Lucia Mokra, Dean of the Faculty of Social and Economic Sciences, Comenius University
- Jan Kovař, Senior Researcher, Institute of International Relations Prague
- Larissa Brunner, Policy Analyst, European Policy Centre

Moderator:

- Helena Truchla, Redactor, Aktualne.cz and Hospodařske noviny

Register at bit.ly/UrbanTalks2019 or contact us via info@praguesummit.eu.
The debate will be held in English and followed by a small refreshment.

This year's EP elections have been dubbed by many as the most important EP elections in the EU's history. They present numerous questions pertaining not only to the coming five years of the European Parliament, but for the future of the European Union as a whole. Eurosceptic, nationalist and populist forces have been on the rise in the past years across Europe—will they be more influential in the new parliament or will the established international order hold?

