

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION

Organized by the Iustinianus Primus Law Faculty in cooperation with TEPSA – Trans European Policy Studies Association to commemorate the 18th of December – International Migrants Day

Topic: Intercultural dialogue combating the stigmatization of migrants/refugees

Time: 18.12.2109 at 13.00 hours

Venue: UN Depository library, Iustinianus Primus Law Faculty

- Prof. d-r Sasho Georgievski – Iustinianus Primus Law Faculty and Refugee Law Clinic
Opening remarks
- Prof. d-r Anna Krasteva - New Bulgarian University, Sofia, Bulgaria
"Building migration partnership: new challenges in a (post)migration crisis world"
- Dejan Kladarin – UNHCR Mission in Skopje
"Challenges in providing international protection to refugees"
- Sonja Bozinovska Petrushevska, Head of Office, IOM Skopje
"Vulnerabilities along the Mediterranean routes"
- Zoran Drangovski – Macedonian Young Lawyers Association
"Mixed Migration Movements as one of the challenges of Macedonia today"
- Sasko Kocev – MARRI –Migration, Asylum, Refugees Regional Initiative
"Managing migration through regional cooperation in Western Balkans"
- Prof. d-r Irena Rajchinovska Pandeva, Iustinianus Primus Law Faculty and Refugee Law Clinic
"Intercultural dialogue combating the stigmatization of migrants/refugees – EU context"