

VACANCY NOTE

TEPSA Project Manager (full time)

About TEPSA

The Trans European Policy Studies Association (TEPSA) is an independent research network comprising 47 leading universities and research institutes in the field of European affairs throughout Europe, managed by the TEPSA Secretariat in Brussels. The TEPSA Secretariat manages and implements several EU-funded projects, within which it contributes to maximising the policy and societal impact by organising conferences and trainings, producing audio-visual material, and coordinating the publication of research and the supply of expertise to EU institutions. For further details, see our website: <https://www.tepsa.eu/>.

Job description

TEPSA is looking for a Project Manager to start as of October 2021. The successful candidate will join our small and dynamic office, where everyone plays an important role and has an impact.

The Project Manager will cooperate closely with TEPSA member institutes, EU institutions and other think-tanks and academic institutions across Europe. The position will allow the successful candidate to further develop his/her project management, reporting, research and outreach skills and gain insights into EU policy making and policy analysis. The successful candidate will manage EU funded projects and contribute to the implementation of project activities, with a focus on research dissemination, event organisation and outreach to citizens.

The role would suit a candidate with a background in EU affairs and at least 3 years of experience in project management. Candidates with a thematic focus on citizen/youth engagement, climate change, employment and social affairs, migration and asylum, fundamental rights, disinformation, EU solidarity, and/or EU-Russia relations are encouraged to apply.

The successful candidate will be offered a one-year contract under Belgian law on a full-time basis. The possibility of extension of the contract will depend on the performance of the candidate and on TEPSA's volume of projects at a given time. The gross monthly remuneration envisaged for this position is dependent on the qualifications and years of experience of the candidate. Extra benefits include the provision of daily lunch vouchers (€8/day), DKV medical and hospitalisation insurance, éco-chèques (250€/year) or public transport (STIB) -depending on the distance between the workplace and the place of residence (€499/year), and internet/GSM subscription.

Tasks and responsibilities

- Management and implementation of EU-funded projects
- Project reporting
- Coordination of edited volumes
- Quality check and proofreading of research papers
- Planning, organisation and follow up of project events and meetings
- Liaison with TEPSA members and EU institutions
- Drafting of project proposals
- Outreach and dissemination activities
- General administrative tasks

Requirements

- Master's degree in EU studies/political science/European law or a related discipline
- Interest in and solid understanding of the functioning and structure of the EU
- At least three years of relevant professional experience in project management, including experience with managing research projects, managing European funds and reporting to donors.
- Experience in dissemination and outreach of research and project findings
- Experience in the review of research papers
- Excellent command of English; French is an asset
- Excellent knowledge of the MS Office suit
- Excellent communication and writing skills
- Excellent organizational skills, ability to multitask, prioritize and perform under tight deadlines, attention to detail
- Ability to work autonomously
- Team spirit
- Eligible to work in Belgium (work permit)

Desirable experience and expertise

- Experience in working for or with EU institutions
- Experience in working for a think tank or a membership-based organisation
- Thematic expertise in citizen/youth engagement, climate change, employment and social affairs, migration and asylum, fundamental rights, disinformation, EU solidarity, and/or EU-Russia relations .

Application procedure

Applicants are requested to send their CV, cover letter and the names of two references to TEPESA's Executive Director Ms Mariam Khotenashvili (recruitment@tepsa.eu) with the following subject line: Project Manager [Your name].

The closing date for applications is 5 September 2021 (midnight); however, early applications are highly encouraged, and the application received will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

Please note that we are only able to contact shortlisted candidates. Interviews and a written exercise will be conducted online or at TEPESA's premises in Brussels, depending on the health situation. No travel reimbursement is available for the interviews.

