

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS – Student Video Contest

With the support of the Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values (CERV) Programme, Trans European Policy Studies Association \(TEPSA\) is organising a student contest open to high-school, undergraduate, and graduate students.

We want young Europeans to make their voices heard and to share their insights on the European Union and how it affects their daily lives, on what they would improve, and on what the EU means to them.

One winning video will be published on TEPSA's YouTube channel as well as on the TEPSA website, alongside videos from Europe's leading academics and policy makers!

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The contest is open to high-school and BA students.

- The video should be maximum 3-minutes long.
- The video should describe how the EU affects your daily life (e.g. what part of the EU do I value in my daily life, how is climate change impacting my daily life)
- The video should be your chance to tell EU leaders how they can improve EU policies.
- Be creative!

You can submit your videos to TEPSA's social media on Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, or Instagram. It should be submitted no later than Friday 15 April 2022 (midnight).

You can also send your videos to us on email to eva.ribera@tepsa.eu and hugh.evans@tepsa.eu with "Video contest_LAST NAME" as the subject of the email. For any question on the contest, please send an e-mail to eva.ribera@tepsa.eu.

CONTENT, EDITING AND PUBLICATION POLICY

When submitting the video, the author agrees on TEPSA's ownership of the video and its content. The author gives its consent to TEPSA editing the video. The editing includes the insertion of TEPSA's logo together with the member institute's logo. The editing can also include cutting or restructuring of different parts of the video.

TEPSA will not modify or replace the content of the video. The final edited video will be consulted with the author prior to its publication.

TEPSA support for the production of these videos does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and TEPSA cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

ABOUT TEPSA

The Trans European Policy Studies Association (TEPSA) was established in 1974 as the first trans-national research network in the field of EU affairs. It comprises leading research institutes throughout Europe, with an office in Brussels. Its aim is to provide high quality research on European integration in order to stimulate discussion on policies and political options for Europe. This is achieved by interaction between the European and national institutions as well as the academic and research community. More information on our activities can be found at www.tepsa.eu