RADAR YOUTH LAB

FAKE NEWS-How dangerous is it for the European Democracy?

13th Nov 2023/Vienna

Fake news and disinformation are flourishing not only since the beginning of the COVID 19-pandemic and the war in Ukraine. Also in the run-up to the European Parliament elections in June 2024, a rise of disinformation campaigns and attacks on democratic and European electoral processes are expected – a risk which should not be underestimated and must be tackled in due time.

- Are you between 18 and 30 years old?
- Are you interested in discussing the influence of fake news on democratic processes with peers from other EU-countries?
- Do you want to develop ideas how to combat the spread of fake news and formulate policy recommendations?

Then apply for the RADAR Youth Lab!

WHEN? Monday, 13.11.2023, 08:30-16:00

WHERE? House of the European Union, Wipplingerstraße 35, 1010 Vienna

The Youth Lab will be held in English. Two selected Youth Ambassadors will finalise and present policy recommendations worked out by the participants in the Vienna youth lab to high-level EU policy-makers and experts at a concluding conference in Brussels on the 1st and 2nd February 2024.

RADAR is an EU-project that aims at raising citizens' awareness on disinformation and providing an accessible public platform for debate on the issue.

Who can apply

- Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 30 years old
- Applicants must possess knowledge or express interest in disinformation and the selected policy areas
- Applicants must have a residency in a Member State of the European Union
- Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in English

Participants that travel from outside Vienna can be reimbursed for their costs.

If you have any questions about your eligibility, do not hesitate to contact Johanna Edthofer (johanna.edthofer@oegfe.at).
