Applications are open for the new TEPSA Board, which will be elected by TEPSA members at the upcoming General Assembly, taking place in Zagreb on 28 November 2019. The Board members' mandate, starting on 1 January 2020, has a duration of 3 years and is renewable.

Interested candidates should be experienced and motivated to contribute to TEPSA's work. They do not necessarily need to be active in a member institute of TEPSA. The ideal composition of the Board should combine geographical diversity, gender balance as well as excellence in the field of disciplines and subjects that are privileged in the activities of TEPSA.

Interested applicants are asked to fill out the application form. The candidates should detail the motivation for the candidature and should select the role or tasks they are interested to work on during the 3-year mandate. The form should be sent by Monday 28 October 2019 to TEPSA's Chairperson Ass. Prof. Lucia Mokra, with TEPSA's Executive Director Mariam Khotenashvili in cc. The applications will be shared with the TEPSA delegates ahead of the election.

The voting procedure in the General Assembly is outlined in the TEPSA statutes.
