

Co-funded by the
Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

TEPSA and the Institute of International Relations and Political Science from Vilnius University (IIRPS VU) have the pleasure to invite you to Professor Adriaan Schout's lecture "The EU of the Member States", which will take place on 22 December, at 15:45 CET.

During the event, Adrian Schout (Senior Research Fellow at Clingendael) will discuss EU's reaction to the COVID-19 pandemic and the Economic Recovery Package. The lecture will also serve as a presentation for the TEPSA Book "Euroscepticism and the Future of Europe: Views from the Capitals". The lecture is also part of IIRPS VU professors Ramūnas Vilpišauskas' course "Political Economy of European Integration".

You can follow the event on IIRPS VU Facebook page.

This event marks the publication of the book Euroscepticism and the Future of Europe: Views from the Capitals edited by Michael Kaeding, Johannes Pollak and Paul Schmidt. Eurosceptic parties are in government across Europe, and they have considerable influence over the national debate. "Euroscepticism and the Future of Europe: Views from the Capitals" maps and analyses this phenomenon across the continent. Over 40 authors have given their expert views on Euroscepticism in the EU, in neighbouring countries, and in candidate countries. "Euroscepticism and the Future of Europe: Views from the Capitals" is a political travel guide, taking you on a tour through the political diversity of Europe. You can purchase the book here.